

Please don't mess with Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law!

In my opinion this is one of the things "government" has done that has a direct and beneficial effect on the lives of many Hoosiers.

My "junk" phone calls have gone from ten or more per week to almost zero.

The same is true at the Seymour, Indiana, home of my elderly parents (both in their mid 80s). Please don't mess with this splendid law.